

UK GDPR and Data Protection Policy

Version 1.2 October 2025

Education Destination Ltd. is a tour operator based on the Isle of Wight that specialises in the provision of bespoke, curriculum-relevant school trips.

We assist schools and groups with planning and booking visits to activity providers and assist with transport and accommodation bookings. We do not provide these services directly.

We also offer schools a wide selection of pre-prepared teaching resources that relate directly to their chosen activities.

This policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. It also sets out your rights and our obligations under the UK General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA).

For the purpose of the UK GDPR and DPA, Education Destination Ltd is the Data Controller.

How We Use Your Information

We use the information that we collect from you to be able to provide our services. Specifically, this includes:

1. Providing Services: To fulfil our contractual obligations, such as processing a quotation or managing a trip booking.
2. Service Improvement: To monitor and improve our website and service offerings.
3. Communication: To respond to your enquiries and communicate essential trip information.
4. Legal Compliance: To maintain records as required by law, including safeguarding.

Disclosing and Sharing Personal Data

We will not disclose personal information to any third party except in accordance with this Policy and in the following circumstances:

- Third-Party Providers: Most of the services we offer are provided by third parties (e.g., travel, accommodation, and entry to visitor attractions). By providing your details, you authorise the necessary sharing of data with these providers for the sole purpose of facilitating your visit. We take steps to ensure these third parties are also UK GDPR compliant.

- Business Transfer: If we sell our business, in which case your details will be provided to the buyer as part of the transferred assets.
- Legal Requirement: Where we are required by law or court order to disclose personal information.
- Fraud Prevention: To further fraud protection and reduce the risk of fraud.

Storage and Security of Personal Data

Electronic Storage and International Transfers

Our primary website server and business systems are based in the United Kingdom.

- In the normal course of operating our business, it may be necessary to transfer and process data that we collect from you to locations outside the United Kingdom (UK) or the European Economic Area (EEA) (for example, if a third-party activity provider's data centre is overseas).
- Any such transfer will only take place where we have established the necessary safeguards to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with the UK GDPR, such as through Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs) or where the recipient country has an adequacy decision from the UK government.
- By providing personal data to us, you acknowledge and agree to this transfer, storing, and processing, provided the appropriate safeguards are in place.

Physical Storage

Our Standard Operating Procedures do not require the routine storing of Personal Details in a physical format.

- The potential exception is for records pertaining to investigations under our Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.
- In this case, any physical records will be kept confidential and stored securely at our Head Office, separate from personnel files, and managed in line with the UK GDPR and DPA requirements.

Data Retention Periods

Education Destination Ltd will not retain personal data for longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the data were collected, or as required by applicable law or regulation.

The criteria used to determine our retention periods include:

- The purpose for which the data was collected and the continued need for that data to fulfil that purpose
- Any legal or regulatory obligations that require us to retain the data for a specific period
- The existence of any ongoing or potential legal claims or disputes where the data may be relevant

Once the appropriate retention period expires, personal data will be securely deleted or anonymised so that it can no longer be used to identify individuals.

Website Cookies Policy

"Cookies" are small text files which are stored on your computer or device. They are used, for example, to remember options that you have taken when browsing the site to save re-entering data multiple times.

- Functionality: Our website uses cookies that are essential for the website to function efficiently and provide a good user experience. They do not contain any personally identifiable information.
- Consent: When you first visit our site, you will be presented with a cookie banner allowing you to manage your preferences and consent to the use of non-essential cookies.
- Management: If you do not agree with our use of non-essential cookies, you can decline them via the cookie banner or manage/disable cookies through your web browser settings. There are many online tutorials available showing how to achieve these tasks based on your specific hardware and software.

Website Third-Party Links

We may include links to third parties on our website. Where we provide a link, it does not mean that we endorse or approve that site's policy towards visitor privacy. You should review their separate privacy policy before sending them any personal data.

Your Data Subject Rights (UK GDPR)

Under the UK GDPR, you have the following rights regarding the personal data we hold about you:

1. Right of Access (Subject Access Request - SAR): You have the right to request a copy of the information we hold about you. We do not charge an administration fee for handling a Subject Access Request, though we reserve the right to charge a reasonable fee or refuse the request if it is manifestly unfounded or excessive.
2. Right to Rectification: You have the right to have inaccurate personal data corrected.
3. Right to Erasure (The right to be forgotten): You have the right to request that we delete your personal data, subject to certain exceptions (e.g., we must keep records required by law).
4. Right to Restrict Processing: You have the right to limit the way we use your data.
5. Right to Data Portability: You have the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
6. Right to Object: You have the right to object to processing based on legitimate interests or direct marketing.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact the Nominated Data Protection Lead using the details below.
